Why we have to use school uniform?

By: Anne, Gendis, Meeko, Izzie and Juwan

At BSS school uniforms are mandatory in order to reduce peer pressure and to prevent bullying. School uniforms create a level playing field among the student body, which reduces peer pressure and helps to prevent bullying. A school uniform can prevent bullying, based on appearance or economic background and can encourage positive feelings.

The positive impact of school uniforms

School uniforms are an essential part of our school program. One of the positive aspects of wearing a school uniform is, that you can tell straight away if a person belongs to our school. Not being occupied whether a student's clothes are fashionable will improve academic performance while wearing a school uniform also guarantees that any student fits in with all his or her colleagues independent of the individual's social status.

The negative aspects of school uniform

Sometimes a school uniform can be uncomfortable. You cannot tell people apart, and they may lack in quality. Some students might not like the style. Furthermore, uniforms do not allow students to be creative in their choice of wardrobe. In addition, school uniforms can have a negative impact on children's self image.
